

Ticket on sale for a Ralph Young Trunk circa 1910

Trunk contains

- Handcrafted afghan by local artist
- Handcrafted afghan by local artist
- Print (fully matted) depicts a scene (1875) along the C&D canal by a local artist
- Amish hand crafted angel doll with folded hymnal pages
- Sewing box
- Ceramic white water pitcher/vase decorated with seven 3D statues ( 7 inches tall)
- 14 inches hand carved wooden eagle (from Europe)
- Finger vase blue & white ceramic delft style small Portugal pottery
- Candle Holder and Soy Candle (Generation Station)
- Decorative Wire basket
- Stained Glass Angel
- Gift cards to various businesses
- Great Books:
  - A Curse Called War by Renee Maxwell (signed)
  - The House That Went Down with the Ship by David Healey
  - A Least Expected Heaven by Carl Mazza
- Variety of wines!
- His/her pens His: Solid maple wood box w/Cecil County Cedar cased pen.

Her: Solid walnut box w/Jerusalem Olive cased pen.

Each set is valued at approximately $75.00 ($10.00 for the box and $65.00 for the pen)... While the pens/boxes are not matched sets, these are really pretty. The pens get more beautiful w/time as each time you use the pen, it absorbs the oils from you hand bringing a beautiful sheen and patina to the pens....

Winning ticket will be drawn at the CCEA Gala in January 24, 2015 at Schaefer's Banquet Facility.

Gala and Trunk tickets are available at Schaefer's Restaurant.